

Gale Environmental Science Scavenger Hunt

Name: Chase Cole

Period: 5

Date: Sept. 26

Teacher: Mr. Dev

Directions: From your Clever portal, access Gale Environmental Science. It is located under the library resources collection of apps. Be sure to sign-in using your google account. Answer the following questions in complete sentences and thoughts. Spelling counts.

Why is it important to sign-in using your google account?

Because then you can save things to your google drive.

What are two different ways you can access current issues?

1. searching current issues
2. Using the browse issues button.

How many different issues are available to browse?

481

Using the advanced search, name at least four different ways to limit your search.

1. and
2. or
3. not
4. proximity

Using the topic finder under advanced search, type in the topic: renewable energy, what are 3 of the secondary topics listed?

1. Renewable energy sources
2. Renewable energy projects
3. Renewable energy sector

Using the Land And Water Use Tile, select the over fishing topic to answer the following questions:

How many images are available to preview?

10

How many news articles are there to reference?

2,372

In the biography section, who is it referring to?

Gerard Pieter

How many related topics are there?

3

Using the coral reef threats document located in the overfishing topic page how many different resources were referenced?

3

Who wrote the article, Coral Reef Threats?

Amy Hackner Blackwell.

Name at least three different article features you have available in the article

Overfishing (ex; change the font size)

1. Listen
2. Translate
3. Display options

'What are three different related topics that are mentioned on the landing page for overfishing?

1. cyanide
2. water pollution
3. fisheries

Using APA, cite the Over fishing article.

"Overfishing" enviromental encyclopedia, edited by Deidre S. Blanchfield, Gale, 2011